

AWS Lambda is a cloud-based service that allows you to run code without provisioning or managing servers. Lambda executes your code only when needed and scales automatically to run your code with high availability. It enables developers to build applications and services quickly without having to manage servers. You can use Lambda to build serverless applications, including backend services.